Lately, I've been kickin' it around
Maybe getting your attention is a full-time let down
You say you want me but it feels a little funny you only call me when you're strung out

You don't care for me, or you do
It's a little bitter cold, but I still want you

Come on, let me light up your lips
Let me tear at your tongue
I want you undone
Oh what fun it would be, if you'd only let me
Do what I want, let me see you undone
I wanna see you undone
Waiting, laying on your bathroom floor
Screaming, baby, just a little bit more
I'd take another sign that this could all be mine
Say okay if you're okay

You don't care for me, or you do
It's a little bitter cold, but I still want you

Come on, let me light up your lips
Let me tear at your tongue
I want you undone
Oh what fun it would be, if you'd only let me
Do what I want, let me see you undone
I wanna see you undone
