If that's your closest look
You won't see me

If you don't care enough
You should free me

It's all up to you but..
Never never never never again
Will I be that blind

Never never never never again
Will I waste my time

In times of ignorance and assurance
In times of losing faith and endurance

I won't let you down cos..
Never never never never again
Will I be that blind

Never never never never again
Will I waste my time

There's a sound ringing in my head
I can't make it go away
Like the risk of all mistakes I ever made

Never never never never again
Will I be that blind

Never never never never again
Will I waste my time

Never never never never again
Will I be untrue

Never never never never again
Will I lie to you
