Here I am in the city where the air is getting thin
My throat is growing tighter the walls ae closing in,
Why are your words so strong where did we go wrong,

You all look so familiar but I'm scared of what I see Buildings stretching skywards suffocating you and me
Why are your words so strong where did we go wrong?
From the bottom to the top they're not gonna stop you
Stronger, stronger, stronger than life itself...

The song I sing the tune we play
You can hear my voice singing night and day
But why are your words so strong where did we go wrong?

From the bottom to the top they're not going to stop you

It's 5.30am I want to leave I've got to go right now!!

See in, see out of the city
Tell me do you believe me?
I do I think I'm a liar
I think I'm a liar...
