The time has come to say goodnight feelings rest assured
My words and thoughts are yours tonight just calling at your door
Every breath is sacred now every second blessed
And all the time I spend with you is heaven unconfessed

You are all I believe in, worth waiting for All I believe in, everything and more...

All the world is here tonight, what kingdom shall we reign?
Your loving eyes fall from sight to capture once again Are all your words hollow now? Is stillness wht I've seen?
How skin of perfect stone can be beautifully obscene

You are all I believe in, worth waiting for
All I believe in, everything and more...

To lie with, cry with, sleep, dance and fly with
We can soar throught the heavens if we choose

You are all I believe in, worth waiting for
You are all I believe in, everything and more How much more must I take? How much more before I break?
How much more...
