The sound I've found in the night is strong,
Do you notice me where the light once shone,
To hell with your cities, your suburbs and fields
Taste the air and see what it reveals,
We're alive, don't you feel alive? why don't you feel alive?
Just breathe deeply now, Breathe deeply -
Don't you feel alive; The flowers on the citynight drive

Almost there...

The sign of mine my life is long, remember me and where I come from,
To hell with your flares, your flowers and robes,
Think of life as an abstract pose,
We're alive, don't you feel alive? why don't you feel
alive?
Just breathe deeply now, Breathe deeply -
Don't you feel alive, The flowers on the citynight drive

To hear, to hear that sound again,
The triumphant call that I heard back then,
To hell with your pity, my body's gone cold
And all your words seem a wee bit old,

Just breathe deeply now, Breathe deeply -
Don't you feel alive, The flowers on the citynight drive
