Heading out across the landscape believing so many things

Hearing the sounds of summer fade

You start beating back your winter wings

Every line, every curve of your body sings,

Cover me, save me, reach me, raise me,

Every time we touch my body clings,

Cover, save me, reach me, raise me,

There are places I have never been, worlds I've yet to dream of,

May the stars in the sky match the colours of the eye

My love

I am alive in you, alive with you - you are,

Alive in me, alive with me you are...

Ooh Ooh

Help me stand through the heavens and the heights,

Through the battles and the nights we spend together...

Together, together

And so we slide down the banks of the river, time will ease the pain,

Reflections pass, like warriors we glide, you know I'll remain

Every line, every curve of your body sings,

Cover me, save me, reach me, raise me,

Every time we clash I hear you sing,

Cover me, save me, reach me, raise me,

There are places I have never been, worlds I've yet to dream of,

May the stars in the sky match the colours of the eye

My love, because

I am alive in you, alive with you - you are,

Alive in me, alive with me you are...

Ahhh

Ahhh

Look at me now I'm running faster, faster, faster

The clouds are alive the clouds are alive

Look at me now
