Face up to the facts, You won't get on with a mouth like that, Face up to the facts, What you give out you will always get back. You dare to deny it, you must let your body satisfy it, Here and now, here and now. Do you claim to try it, reveal yourself to me, Face up to the facts...Let your body relax. I won't give marks and I don't leave tracks, Let your body relax. I only come out when I need to do that. I would never deny it, It's the greatest thing and you must try it. Here and now, here and now. Don't hide, steal or buy it, It's in your blood ... Face up to the facts... You must visualise it, set it loose and clarify it, Here and now, here and now. Do you dare to try, reveal yourself to me. Face up to the facts... A man will lie for his lines, In his natural crimes. To have guilt in these times, You must read between the lines. Face up to the facts, Face up to the facts, You deny it, It's the greatest thing and you must try it, Here and now. Face up... to the facts...
