Are you in the mood, do you have the time? Whatever the cards say tonight, will you be mine? Come and lay beside me, Our love is alive. Let the wars of the day go by, And our senses will thrive, As we join together can you feel it begin...So lay your hands on my soul. It's there to be taken whole. Lay your hands on my soul, Your eyes are the door to the soul. Were you here for me, As I danced alone? How could I tell you enough, Love fuels the unknown. Night brings us together, Are we going to let it win? Love has taken over us from the depths, Of it we swim, So we come together can you feel it begin...So lay your hands on my soul, It's there to be taken whole. Lay your hands on my soul, Your eyes are the door to the soul, Just lay your hands on my soul...It's you and I together it's, you and I alone it's, You and I forever lets, carve it in stone. We join together, can you feel it begin yeh...So lay your hands on my soul, It's there to be taken whole. Are you in the mood, Do you have the time? Were you here for me, As I danced alone...? Lay your hands on my soul, It's there to be taken whole. Lay your hands on my soul, Your eyes are the door to the soul...
