I left my body and mind long ago. I walk alone in the land of the spirit. The devil has me by the back of the neck. How I hope to claim everything in it. Run, lady, run, lady run, The day of the jackal has come. Run, lady run, lady run, The day is mine but I cannot see the sun. The road is long and the earth is cracked. We hold the hand of the whit men's lie. The devil takes me to the windows of hell. The angel smiles as she passes by. Run, lady run, lady run, The flood begins in kingdom come. Run, lady run, lady run, The day is mine but I will not have my fun. Outsider, Outsider. Another step on this hollow ground. My body pleads for the soul and the spirit. I need to know why the devil mocks. The angel cries with everything in it. Run, lady run, lady run. The day of the jackal has come. Run, lady run, lady run. The day is mine, but I cannot see the sun. Outsider, Outsider. Heaven help me help myself, Heaven help me... Heaven help me help myself, Heaven help me... Outsider, Outsider. I left my body and mind long ago. I walk alone in the land of spirits. I need to know why the people mock. How I hope to claim everything in it. How I hope to claim everything in it. How I hope to claim everything in it. How I hope to claim everything in it. The Outsider.
