Oh we could lie beneath the stars
And watch ourselves in passing cars
From the roof of this prison, yeah
Oh we could make this moment ours
And I could hold you, touch your scars
I can't believe that I have you, yeah

I said
You, I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you
Yeah, I waste myself on you, yeah

Like a feather in a hurricane
This sweeping through my brain
I can't seem to find hope in this situation, love
Oh and so I tremble like an earthquake
Your tears are heavy rain
They drown my soul in empathy like a flood, love

I sing it now
You, I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you
Yeah, I waste myself on you, yeah

You, you set me on fire
Now we're walking on a wire, baby
A wire, baby
You, you set me on fire
Now we're walking on a wire, baby
A wire, baby

You, I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you
Yeah, I waste myself on you, yeah
