Inspired by what is right from wrong
But they knew all along
Inspired by what is right from wrong
By what is right from wrong
But they knew all along

Shut your mouth, we don't care to hear it
Your verbs are without action
Back down
Shut your mouth, we don't care to hear it

They knew all along
But I'm forced to remember
September, the choices, it's all we had
I remember, September, the choices, it's all we had
When they all blind us from the truth
We will always remember
September, the choices
It's all we had

We deserve to know
(What were thrown into)
We deserve to know, (deserve to know the truth)
(That they lie to you)
We deserve to know
(What they hide from us)
We deserve to know, to know the truth

To know the truth

They knew all along
They knew all along
But I'm forced to remember
September, the choices, it's all we had
I remember, September, the choices, it's all we had
When they all blind us from the truth we will always remember
September, the choices
It's all we had

They show no empathy

They are the living dead
They are the living dead
They show no empathy
They are the living dead

Take my hand,
It's all we had
Take my hand,
It's all we had...

Take my hand, I'll show you the way
(Hand...)

Inspired (inspired), by what is right from wrong
Inspired (inspired), but they knew all along
