So come on lets
chase those memories away
and drink the night into oblivion.

Iâ€™ve been watching you
and memorised
every last line of your profile.
Every shade of your complexion,
every tone of your skin.
And I am not surprised to find
you in his eyes.
Hanging on every word
dropped from his mouth.

Cos lately Iâ€™ve been watching you.
Iâ€™ve been waiting for you to take me home.

So tell me all of your deepest dark secrets
Lying in your arms inseparable.
