Out running around, repainting the town
Trying so hard to lose what you have found (But then again) I know that you know better
When you can't pay the bills, on the wages of sin We'll leave the light on for you, come on in Back home where you belong, we will not ask you where you've been

The calf will get so nervous when he sees you come walking back in
When you're tired of the hole that you've dug yourself in We'll leave the light on for you, come on in (come on in)

REPEAT VERSE 1
