Cow-boy Dave

Josephine we might have missed a chance
Why would we lean on the past
Maybe you and I could do a little dance
And drink and laugh about the times we've had

We're both livin' our lives peacefully
And we could meet maybe every second year
Yes my love for you will not remain
I just want us to be friends

Don't judge the man
Judge the boy instead
'Cos time don't last too long

I know I've always been a bit confused
And confusion's all you ever had
I hope I haven't left you any bruises
And all I gave you was bad, so bad

Don't judge the man
Judge the boy instead
'Cos time don't last too long

Solo
Don't judge the man
Judge the boy instead
'Cos time don't last too long
Don't blame the man
For things a boy has done
'Cos time is on the run
