Painting the sky

You drove from London to Paris for me, did it seem long.

I'd cross a rainbow to have you here with me, d'you think that I'm wrong.

See the moon, if the night gets too dark for you, I'll make it shine.

Your parents they can see their baby while I'm all alone,
Tell me honey didn't we found a home ?

I'll be painting the sky so it looks like your eyes, oh darling

I'll be counting the days so I know somehow where you are

3 Years ago seems yesterday, but you went away.

You said you'd be here for the fall, with me when it's cold

I can wait, I can wait, I can wait, just drop me a line.

And the time seems to expand when you're away, it's just I want you now.

I'll be painting the sky so it looks like your eyes again

You're never gonna leave me no more

What would it be if you say to me again

I love you, I love you, I love you

Oh I wish you were here with me, by my side.

Oh I wish everything would disappear around you and I.

And I promise to call everyday, baby, just hold the line.

Yeah when you will be here with me, each and everyday.

I'll be painting the sky so it looks like your eyes again

You're never gonna leave me no more

I'll be counting the days so I know somehow where you are

I love you, I love you, I love you

I'll be painting the sky so you never seem too far

You're never gonna leave me no more

What would it be if you say to me again?

I love you, I love you, I love you
