SIMPLE MAN CREDO

Yesterday Me
Walking down the street meets
Yesteryear Simple Man
Dirty bare feet

Son all you need
To keep your heart ticking
Is to find yourself a way
To get a decent pickle licking

Now I walked on
But the Simple Man stayed o'
His simple man philosophy
His simple man credo

Son all you need
To keep your heart ticking
Is to find yourself a way
To get a decent pickle licking

Son all you need
To keep your motor clicking
Is to find yourself a way
To get a decent pickle licking

Son all you need
To keep your motor clicking
Is to find yourself a way
To get a decent pickle licking

See that pickle over there, Sometimes the pickle licks
you,
Other times you lick the pickle.

Son all you need
To keep your motor clicking
Is to find yourself a way
To get a decent pickle licking
