Riding out and summed up for they know their destination
Demons and witches and leaving less perceptions
Breaking religion by burning the cross
Breaking religion, burning the cross

Traveling in darkness, afraid of recognition
Evil ambitions, they're planning the destruction
Breaking religion by burning the cross
Breaking religion, burning the cross

Oh, you gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night unholy light
You gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night unholy light
You gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night, yeah

Riding out and summed up for they know their
destination
Demons and witches and leaving less perceptions
Breaking religion by burning the cross
Breaking religion, burning the cross

Oh yeah, they're burning the cross
Oh yeah, they're burning the cross
Hear what they say 'cause they do not go home
Hear what they say 'cause they do not go home

Oh, you gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night unholy light
You gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night unholy light
You gotta see them riding through the darkness
And stay in the night, yeah

Doomsday reflections
Above the clouds high in the sky
Doomsday infections
In their heads and in their minds

Doomsday reflections

Doomsday infections
In their heads and in their minds
You'll be burning the cross
