"On a Night of Full Moon"

Stay away, I am evil or you will die by tomorrow

Copulation with a body of woman recently dead
My ceremonies with all the corpses
Finding souls to unlock the coffins
It's a desecration of souls in their holy lair

Magic circles drawn after midnight
Around graves to be opened, I'll use a wand and bodies rise
I'll ask the questions and I'll burn the remains
It's a desecration of souls in their holy lair

Oh this sacrifice
I've been searching
On the night of full moon

Copulation with a body of woman recently dead
My ceremonies with all the corpses
Finding souls to unlock the coffins
It's a desecration of souls in their holy lair

Oh this sacrifice
I've been searching
On the night of full moon

[Incomprehensible]
