There is something that this earth today
Needs and is begging of you
Something that would change the way
Of this world, if it comes true
But not everyone this world around
Has a say in it true
That is why this whole world
Is begging of you
Yes it means a world of difference to planet earth
If Obama wins your franchise will be worth

Of all the faults and shortcomings
If any, you think, there is
Sincere and honest
The best of all, he still is
From a world of shabby frills and thrills
To a world of sincerity
From a direction that kills
To a state of eternity
Yes it means a world of difference to planet earth
If Obama wins your franchise will be worth
