Oh! Yes my friends if I were to tell you
That Obama is white, would you believe it
Well then my dear friends why should you do so
When others say that he is racist
'Cause you know it is crystal clear that he isn't Clear as the day and night you live in
'Cause you know, deep in your heart very well
He only means to transcend all this

Racism
Lobbying
Dirty politics

For once in a very long time we have
A sincere leader to deal with
He is one of those very rare kinds
Who is not scared to face the issues
That are staring straight into our eyes
However hard we try and deny it
Yes he will make a world of difference
To this world that we live in

Yes you can
Vote for him
To make that difference
