Do you remember when I said
I said things would get better, better, better yeah
Cuz I remember what I said
But I can't seem to get better keep my head up
Keep a pace and watch you run
I know you're not just anyone
I just can't watch you go

Whenever the light hits you
I forget what I'm goin' through
I remember why I'm still here
All I need is all right here
I know I only say I love you when I've made you cry
But I need you to be mine and I could be so much Better, better, better.....

Do you remember when I said
I said things could be clearer how I feel and How I need you in this life
Can you stay here and not look back
I need another chance

Whenever the light hits you
I forget what I'm goin' through

I remember why I'm still here
All I need is all right here
I know I only say I love you when I've made you cry
But I need you to be mine and I could be so much
Better, better, better.....

I can't change the way that I was but I can't risk it all on trust
(When will times grip leave hold your heart)
And even if kept apart, I still love who you are (I know I could, make a new start)
Oh, and remember

Whenever the light hits you
I forget what I'm goin' through
I remember why I'm still here

All I need is all right here
I know I only say I love you when I've made you cry
But I need you to be mine and I could be so much Better, better, better.....
