L. Thomas

I promised myself never again...

Didn't think this broken heart was ever going to mend

And I tried so hard not to let it show

But I'm lying to myself at night,
that much I know

Despite all the tears I've cried

My heart tells me to try, baby

Chorus:

One more time with feeling

This love's worth believing in

I'll put my heart in your hands

All my dreams in your bed

Lay it all on the line for you...

One more time with feeling

Baby, you bring me joy

Take away my blues

And oh, my heart goes sailing with just the mention of you

I could never be the same

I could never let you go

It's in your touch, your kiss, your smile

That much I know

Despite all my fears tonight

My heart tells me to try, baby

Repeat chorus

So I wait for you with open arms

You know I'm trusting baby

That you will do me no harm

And I wish upon a star, I say a little prayer

That when I awake I'll find you there

Just look into my eyes

Say that you want to try, baby

Repeat chorus
