I was born on the cemetery. Under the sign of the moon.

Raised from my grave by the dead. I was made a mercenary.

In the legions of Hell. Now I'm king of pain, I'm insane.

You know my only pleasure is to hear you cry. I'd love to hear you cry. I'd love to feel you die. And I'll be the first. To watch your funeral. And I'll be the last to leave. I'd love to hear you cry.

And when you're down beyond the ground. I'll dig up your body again. And make love to shame. Oh lady cry, and say goodbye, goodbye. Oh lady cry, and say goodbye. You've gotta say goodbye. 'Cause I will eat your mind
