"Don't Let Your Folk Forget"

Think for a moment and look around...
What they have done with your own land...
You can not let your folk forget
About values they should respect!

You have to understand a fact,
You are the only heir of this land.
Your duty is eternal fight
In selfdefense of Aryankind.

Don't let your folk forget about it!
About it's duties and destiny.
Throw down the chains and show your pride!
In Darkness find the ancient light!

Prepare your self for final battle
And proudly sacrifice your life.
The spilled blood of pagan warrior
Shall fertilize the Mother Earth...

Your children will never forget
How did their father fight and die.
But if you fake and give up
They shall spit on your nameless grave...

Fame of oblivion - this is your choice!
Fight for your right with no remorse...
It's honour to the tradition...
Purity and heritage
