

Thor's Hammer "Equality Hurts Pride"

Visit "Equality Hurts Pride" on MotoLyrics.com

All human beings are born free
And equal in dignity and rights...
These words offend me and hurt my pride
Reading these lies, I wish I were blind

I am not the same as religious men
I don't shake hands with Jesus' friends
I spit in the face of the whole Adam's race
And no god shall stand, before myself...

What's the point in forbidding the slavery
When millions gladly live in the chains of god
And there will always be the ones lacking in dignity
So do we really need to accept human rights shit?

Slaves of addictions, money and faith
Cowards and morons, creatures without honour
I'll never agree with the myth of equality
I am not a part of this weak herd.
