Blood before my eyes...
Fear and dead men's shadows.
Black angels of death
Delight in bloody grapes...

Nothing but my hate
Lets me here survive...
I play a dark part
In the world's falldown...

Now you see the devil.
Human mask is off.
Conscience is forgotten.
No one knows the love...

Weakest want god's help...
Let them slowly die...
Strongest feel the hate
The only key to survive...

In the total war
There aren't equal laws
Instinct is the force,
The rest can be ignored.

Nothing but hate
Rules the human mind.
When end of life is near,
When to survive is to kill!
