You made the idol of book
Became his hopeless slaves
Decided to...
Living the rest of your life
Feeling abhorrence and fear

Denying the essence of life
Searching for absurd truth
Believing in...
Something you will never find
What only exists in your mind

It's time to open your eyes
And see real colours of life
Forget that:
There's only black and white
And follow the rainbow path

You have to understand
There is no promised land
Face the truth:
Existence is now and here
And nothing else is real!
