Abandon all hope
Defenders of dying world.
There' s nothing you can save
From the rising wave...

The snake of time
Is swallowing his tail
The end of the cycle
Is coming without fail

The storm brings fear
To those who trust in god
But I await it's coming
With heart full of joy

The relics of life
They know and praise
Shall turn into ashes
When waves of doom arise

This is the law
Of the wave
And nothing can be done
To stop a fate...
