Full moon over me
Boughs of trees are interlacing over me
Only the strongest will survive into darkness
Children of night...
Children of fire...
Young blood!

Night wind is blowing in our faces
Inclined over dead enemies body
With extracted heart
Young blood needs sacrifice
Sons of this land
We are travelling on black wings of night
Only night gives us the power and strength
To fight!

I'm pressing enemy's heart
Blood... it's flowing down my hands
And falling down on Mother Earth
Shadows are coming to life around me
We will together go on through the darkness
And there is the only one way
Young blood!
