Bring forth the prophets the visions are true
No longer suffer from the hands of doom
Sound the chimes of death for the victors pain
Fire will dance once more on hallowed plains

The final fight
Of our lives
Buried Alive

Earthquakes shatter all in peace
Surround the temples of fear and greed
Legions of her death rule in vain
Taste her vengeance end their reign

The final fight
Of our lives
Buried Alive

Polluted waters from man's domain
Drown her sorrows in sea of rage
Storms of truth winds of pain
Rise in triumph of thy mother's name

The final fight
Of our lives
Buried Alive
