Beg on your knees
I control the rest of your life
Pain I'll bring to thee
Open your mouth and taste the Curb
Annihilation
Of the Despised
Brain paint the street
As my boot ends the rest of your life
Red is all that is seen
When your face explodes in the night
Extermination
Of the Despised
You've lost your last opportunity
To change the way of your life
Now I've taken the opportunity
To put an end to your kind,
Time's wasted on an extra funeral
As my boot ends your life
The life I've taken
Won't make a difference
The path I've chosen
Makes me indifferent
When you've taken
My loved ones from me
My sweet vengeance
Was the answer
The death of me
