so i say we'll catch this world on fire
we'll start a revolution
can't you see it now
it will take all everyone's attention
to leave it all behind us
can't you see it now

so we'll go undercover set a sight together make a path with only what we need to know and we'll ride
we'll ride into the morning and the sun will keep us clear from any ghosts in front of us

it's alright to change cause everyone else stays the same
it's alright to change when everyone else

so come on
we'll set it off, set it off from the start to the top, to the top where we are they'll say we're only making enemies
whoa
we'll set it off, set it off from the start
to the top, to the top where we are

hey can't you just see it we'll be above it all when we change the world with each and every stone and we'll build we'll build it up together now it's all in motion we can't let go this perfect symmetry

same

to the top, to the top where we are
to the top, to the top where we are

no
we'll never stop
come on we'll never know how far we'll go if we, if we knew
it will take all everyone's attention

to the top, to the top where we are

(so i say we'll catch this world on fire)
(we'll start a revolution)
(can't you see it now)

(so i say we'll catch this world on fire)
(we'll start a revolution)
(can't you see it now)

(so i say we'll catch this world on fire)
(we'll start a revolution)
(can't you see it now)

(we'll set it off, set it off from the start)

can't you see it now
(they'll say we're only making enemies)

can't you see it now
