I turn off the Lights, we like Darkness
Now you call my Name, you finally came Even in the Night I see the Light shining bright
I'm alone with my Friends
Now I see you clear, we raise our Glasses Welcome to my House Princess of Hell
Even in the Night I see the Light shining
bright
I'm alone with my Friends
I will bring in here my Crystal Ball
I will gaze, you will know what is to come Solo: M.D. Solo: H.S.
I'm amazed of what I've seen tonight
I won't tell a living Soul, they would not believe
Welcome Princess of Hell Never will I break the Oath I gave I hail you again in Satan's Name, Princess of Hell
Even in the Night I see the Light shining
bright
I'm alone with my friends
We will be back, we will be back
