Across the oceans of darkness
He'll come again
Praying for war and disaster
Will this never end?
As soon as he reaches the point
He'll prepare his army
He'll push down that wall
I've built with my heart
I wait for his coming
For a new chance
To prove to my own heart
That I won't betray
My spirit is flying
To see all the ground
And words are not coming
I need to fight alone

Can somebody help me?
A battle in my back
Where my feelings don't see
He'll attack

And fortune and sadness
They share their hands
Confusion in darkness
Will not leave me blind

As I stay stronger
And holding my time
My cry will be safe
And my tear will fall down
My tear will fall down

Here he comes my fear
My fear
