

Those Endless Eyes "Forever Gone"

Visit "Forever Gone" on MotoLyrics.com

In my lonely room
My sorrow, your image and my life
My thoughts, they fall
Slowly, crushing what's beyond;
Beyond, my breath
As well as my hopes
And the dreams you gave to me

I can see the stars
They just need to wander
All along the stream
I'm sorry
Nothing will retain
My crying
I feel you far away
I'm hearing
All the sounds that sadly
The night brings

My tears
Can't drown my blame
And clouds in the sky show the face
That casted the spell
For the first time, between my heart
And the love that still remains...

Finally, the sky falls
Let it all turn to black
For the blame, and my pain
The betrayer is forever gone
