

Meredith Andrews

"Tomorrow"

Visit "Tomorrow" on MotoLyrics.com

This is no place for a lady
This city's never been too kind
Winter winds blow down the alley
You can walk away, someone will find her
The only home this woman found tonight
You can help her tomorrow
Tomorrow, there's a ray of hope inside
Tomorrow, if we could see the other side

Someone will remember them tomorrow
Keep your promise this time tomorrow
He lives alone in a small room
He was everything to you

A powerful man before the fall
Now you don't talk to him at all
Maybe some day you'll visit, talk about old times

Tomorrow , there's a ray of hope inside
You can call him tomorrow
Someone will remember them tomorrow
Keep your promise this time tomorrow
Tomorrow, if we could see the other side
Keep your promise this time tomorrow
Many tomorrows are gone now, here you sit alone
tonight
Maybe you'll walk with someone who loves you

Don't wait until tomorrow
Someone will remember them tomorrow
Tomorrow, there's a ray of hope inside
Tomorrow, if we could see the other side
Keep your promise this time tomorrow
Keep your promise this time tomorrow
Keep your promise this time tomorrow

Visit Meredith Andrews page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.