Does it real good
Does it real good

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Can it be my rolls that pull all these hoes
Or can it be my Cadillac with 20-inch vogues
Can it be my mansion in Memphis jacuzzi
Or could it be my crib in Florida on the beach

Can it be the ten million records that I sold
Or can it be the first one that ever go gold
Whatever it be like y'all jaw 'cause I don't stop Continuously to make a ho draws drop, yeah

I used to always wonder why my girls have fits
When I walk up out the mall they be looking at me pissed
Maybe just because I ball riding eight or nine whips
And my name is Juicy J and I ain't paying no bitch

When I was broke as a joke they didn't wanna get with me
Till I bought a maybach now they all wanna lick me
Wit a playboy mansion downtown in the city
And the hoes lined up like ninety centy pennies

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green

To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

I got the candy dripping stains off the frame when I'm switching lanes
I'm in the slab glass house swanging gripping grain
They telling me I'm the mane stanging licks to make a gain
Living life in the fast lane getting money I can't complain

These boppers see me riding swanging wanna taste
the fame
But you gotta break that bread with me baby I'm married to the game
I fell in love with stacking change I'm addicted to counting cash
I ain't worried bout naan ho I ain't concerned wit naan ass

I'm 'bout that dollar get it right I'm not out here looking for a wife
I'm out here on that top flight on the grind all day and night
I'm a baller, I'm a pimp, I'm a thug and I'm a hustler
If you want some of this loving break bread girl you a customer

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

See she's a freak ho let me tell you all about it
I met her in the valley and the valley ain't Cali
She tried to act shy but I knew she was 'bout it Hotter than a summer day when it ain't cloudy

She say she want cheese but that's no doubt it
She just another ho I'mma hit then I'm out it
I'm just like jody out the back door see
Hiding my face 'cause her old man know me

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play

If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Now when I pull up at the club I'm looking so clean
Se-se-seventy seven cut dog painted lime green
To-to-today I'm married and my wife don't play
If you want me to treat you ugly bitch you gotta pay

Does it look good, does it look good
Does it look good, does it look good
