From the first breath that you take
To the first step that you make
You will know I'll be there

From the first time you opened your eyes
Or when you laugh, or when you cry
You will know I'll always be there

And when you hear the rooster crow
You will know it's time to open your eyes
We're gonna laugh, we're gonna sing
'Till the sun goes down, then we'll do it all again

And when the nighttime comes
I'll say 'Goodbye, my little friend'
But don't you cry
'Cuz in the morning, I'll see you again

We'll be on top of the world
Sitting on top of the world
With you
Let's do it all again

I've got a heart full of prayers and wishes
Every prayer is for you
And when you'll dream your dreams
I'll be there
Dreamin' with you

Every time I pray, it's for you
These words, this song's for you

We'll be on top of the world
Sitting on top of the world
With you
Let's do it all again

We'll be on top of the world
Sitting on top of the world

Holding hands and smilin' with my friends

And when the nighttime comes
I'll say 'Goodbye, my little friend'
But don't you cry
Cuz in the morning, I'll see you again

We'll be on top of the world
Sitting on top of the world
With you
Let's do it all again

There's many places we will go
But in your heart, you'll always know
You're in every thought
And I'll be there
