Yeah

Just look at him laughing out loud
Life of the party
And look at me trying to be strong
Fighting the tears

How can he just sit there acting
Like we never even happened

So this is the heartache, I've heard about
Part of love, I can live without
Giving it all, loving in vain

This is the heartache, I've heard about
Great future behind me now
As the memories run down my face
This is the heartache

It's not like me to become
A wall decoration
But here in the corner at least
All eyes aren't on me

So that's the new girl, he's seeing
Think it's time I should be leaving

So this is the heartache, I've heard about
Part of love, I can live without
Giving it all, loving in vain

This is the heartache, I've heard about
Great future behind me now
As the memories run down my face
This is the heartache

Is love only a trip of the mind
An illusion done with mirrors, smoke and lights

Oh, this is the heartache, I've heard about
Part of love, I can live without
Giving it all, loving in vain

And this is the heartache, I've heard about
Great future behind me now
As the memories run down my face
This is the heartache

This is the heartache
This is the heartache
