(D. Hutton)

I am weeping, always sleeping Dreading when the light comes in Dreaming of tomorrow and the happiness that it can bring
Contemplatin' and debating as the time just drifts away
You will find today can be tomorrow if you let tomorrow be today
Don't wait, don't hesitate
'Cause I want to tell ya
And I have to tell ya
Dreaming isn't good for you unless you do
The things it tells you to
Contemplatin' and debating as the time just drifts away
You will find today can be tomorrow
If you let tomorrow be today
Don't wait, don't hesitate
'Cause I want to tell ya
And I have to tell you
Dreaming isn't good for you unless you do
The things it tells you to
