

Three Miles Out "Reaching Out"

Breathing out, try to lose my selfishness
I get high, but I can't seem to let you in.
So unsure, insecure, live my life in a blur
And I can't understand it, don't understand.

I need more, Like I never felt before
Holding out cause I've gotta be sure.

Pull yourself together, been waiting here forever
I'm reaching out. Reaching out.
Holding on for something I hope it's not for nothing
I'm reaching out. Reaching out

Tell myself, cause I need that self assurance
Try to sell me like I'm something of yours for sale.
Reaching out with my hands try to meet your demands
But I've grown cold.
