its all because of you im feeling sad and blue you went away
now my life is just a rainy day i love you so how much you'll never know you gone away and left me lonley untouchable memories seem to keep haunting me of a love so true thats what turned all my gray skys blue but you disappeared now my eyes are filled with tears im wishing you were here with me soaked with love all my thoughts of you now that your gone i just dont know what to do- ooooh if only you were here you'd wash away my tears the sun would shine once again you'll be mine o mine but in reality you and i will never beee cause you took your love away from me talk: girl i dont know what i did to make you leave me but what i do knowis that since you've been gone theres such an emptiness inside im wishing youd come back to me

oo baby you took your love away from... meee...
