Searching for answers
this cannot be true
Am I living this life?
Cries of fear, morbid reality
Cries of despair

Fulfilling the dream,
Is it to much too much to ask for?
Desperately seeking feelings
With those who may have the answers
Knowing there must be more
I keep on looking
Am I the only
One asking these questions?
Cries of fear, morbid reality
Cries of anger

Death, grasping its freedom
If not disappointment as always
It's been part of my life
So I cry
