Fear and anger, leave me be
Behold a future, you and me
From dark past, to bright, bright light
Will we then be given insight
Hope will be my driving force
I will be the one to learn
From the thing that should not have been
That put me in the state I was in Death and sorrow, let them be
Leave these ashes, leave them be
From these ruins, let me learn

As a phoenix, I'll return
Life and death, question I
Day by day, always why
How I am going to be
Shall I then be free and see
Hope will be my driving force
I will be the one to learn
Fate and faith, are then they
Life's true spirit, who is to say
Dare not speak the hopeless thought
Of life's reason, it hasn't got
