"Solitude"

Visit "Solitude" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't want to think
Just want to be alone
My life, revolving,
Raging on

I don't want to see
The ones who care for me
My mind, somewhere,
I wish to be

I don't want to care
Afraid to lose my dream
My mind, in lust,
Just let me be!

I don't want to live
Just want to be gone
My life, fading,
Into infinity

Darkness
Searching for the light
The dream
It's just too bright
Now, burnt and blind
Even darkness, I have lost
Solitude, my friend
The decision is mine
Leave me now
It is my time
