Leaving, leaving behind more than a memory
Leaving behind our days and time Wish, want you here to stay, know you will have to go away
to where you long for, a far and distant shore
Must not forget, must not regret Remember what we had, remember what we shared
The days of belief, the days of faith
Days of truth, days of freedom
In my heart there is sore
Will we meet, once more?
In my heart there is sore
Will we meet, once more?
Leaving, leaving behind more than a place to stay

Leaving behind our future plans
Wish, want you here to stay, know you will have to go
to where you long for, a far and distant shore
All we had, all we lost
Will not forget, will not regret
Be all as one once said and gone
Together forever, this one is ours
Saying good-bye, leaving behind, always
Saying good-bye, leaving behind, always Hope to meet again, meet again, and talk about the days
Be friends for more, be friends for more, than this day
