cold all through it live and suffer through love and don't remember cause it's over soon hold we don't even see where you're coming from

we don't even care
we don't even share
don't request it let it work itself leave it time will make it better than it felt hold we don't even sing where you're coming from

we don't even care

can we make it on the phone on the phone
