Thronar, never taken by a mortal soul
Now, revelation of prophecy is coming
Ancient omens are revealing
Light is diminishing and danger is coming
The danger manifests itself as a powerful army
An army fighting under the hand of Sandrier,
The first lieutenant of Gorodar
The traitor raised in the flaming towers
United under the banner of Thronar
A union for freedom and revenge
Three mighty weapons forged for battle
A union for the freedom of lands
United under the banner of Thronar
A union for freedom and revenge
Three mighty weapons forged for battle
A union for the freedom of lands
Strong magic has wiped all light gone
Madness burns itself into the heads of brave men
But three nations shall remain courageous
Their purpose is to impale Sandrier
Thronar, close to be taken
Fighting 'til the last man
A fight becoming a legend
Subject of songs never fading in time
Bravery and bloodshed go hand in hand
When the sword, axe and bow are killing
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Thronar, close to be taken
Fighting 'til the last man
On the war-stricken lands, the sight of beheaded corpses and the smell of rotting flesh
Show the immense bloodshed that has ravaged over Palantia
In the middle Thronar stands, victorious and strong as ever

This victory shall become the subject of tale and song
This mighty army we honour
Wielding the weapons of true craftsmanship
The sword, axe and bow
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
Where sword, axe and bow strike together
The glorious battles of the united lands
And so it ended, the siege of Thronar
The end of a battle, the dawn of a new age
The alliance of the three armies
The greatest force ever witnessed by men
The One, Famien, and Aradas will never be forgotten
