Shake, shake, shake,
With her dance she'll rock your body.
See the sweet kisses she blows.
We have got ourselves a trainee from hell.

Now take a heart of treason and praise your loving queen.
All this strength increased her imagine in reality
To a heart that's torn, and weeps of loving weeps.

To anyone who has ever stood before her. To abandon and erase the history of her false tails. Break free and run away, she is pointed out. And is here to stay.
She's a drug for us. With every move she makes.

The one for us all. The ground will shake and quake.

Sent from above. With each and every move.
The one to rule them all. With each and every move.
The ground will shake and quake.
With each and every move
the ground will shake and quake.
The ground will shake with every move she makes.

Sorry I'm the wind tonight. Sorry for all I have to hide.
She'll rock your body.
She has eaten me alive, I swear I won't get through this night.
A deadly rage of fist full bites. One last kiss and you'll be falling.
