winter's fallen down to wait for something new finally gave up through all that's left to do finally gave up you oh you put me through why don't we trade off soon all your wish is true it can be our gift new makeshift that is few it can be a part through all that's left to do
soon

winter's falling down soon

make it better (you're pushing me away)

this won't happen again
yeah we live to defend every last dying trend
this won't happen again
soon
